Press Mishap Cuts Edition of Freeman To 16-Page Size

The Freeman is forced to limit today's edition to 16 pages due to a mechanical mishap. On Monday the gears on the folder of one of the presses broke, rendering it useless until new parts for the folder can be secured from the manufacturers. With but one press in operation the maximum of an edition will be 16 pages.

The Freeman takes this opportunity to thank the advertisers who cooperated by having their ads appear in another issue.

In limiting this edition, it also was necessary to eliminate some features and reduce the news content. We ask the indulgence of our readers.

Highland Girl Is County Legion Oratory Winner

Lois Snyder Is First, While Roberta Carter, Kingston, Is Second in Contest

Lois Snyder of Highland High School won first prize in the finals of the Ulster County American Legion oratorical contest which was held last evening at 8:30 at the Kingston High School. Roberta Carter of St. Ursula Academy, Kingston, was second and Donald Brooks of Ellenville High School was awarded third prize.

The finals were held before a small but highly appreciative audience. Members of the American Legion color guard acted as ushers.

Miss Snyder chose as her topic, "The Meaning of the Constitution" while Miss Carter's topic was, "A Citizen's Rights and Responsibilities Under the Constitution." Donald Brooks had as his topic "The Framing of the Constitution."

The judges, Waldron DuMond, senior state veterans councilor of the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs; Roger H. Loughran, prominent Kingston attorney, and Clifford L. Rall, principal at the Myron J. Michael School here, awarded the prizes after deliberating for some time before arriving at a decision. The contestants were congratulated on their splendid work by County Legion Americanization Chairman Donald G. Moore and County Legion Commander Thomas Bohan who said it had been difficult to select the winners from among the contestants because of the splendid showing which all had made and the committee's wish was that there had been prizes for all.

The program of the evening was opened with the invocation by chaplain Clarence Brown and the National Anthem was sung by a double quartet from the Kingston High School A Cappella Choir. Robert Cooper was accompanist and also played several selections on the new organ. The choir sang two numbers and during the time the judges were deliberating Donald Moore, county Legion Americanization chairman, gave several impromptu piano solos by popular demand when the audience learned that he was an accomplished musician.

Prizes awarded was $15 for first choice, $10 for second and $5 for third and the winner becomes entitled to enter the district contest the time and place of which will be announced later.

Racial Discrimination Is Problem for Church

Buck Hill Falls, Pa., Jan. 9 (AP)—In a self-styled "revolutionary" report, a special committee of Protestant churchmen insisted today the Christian Church must erase all racial segregation and discrimination if it wants to remain champion "of human rights."

The committee made its report at the annual meeting of the home Missions Council of North America here, which represents 23 major Protestant denominations. The group is in the third day of a four-day session.

Calling the problem of group and race relations "one of the great social and ethical issues of our day," the committee last night declared steps must be taken to insure success of the home missions projects in the U. S. and Canada.

Dewey Program Seems Assured Of Passage Despite Minority

Steingut Voices Democratic Disapproval of Several Phases of Program; G.O.P. Legislators Praise Message

By HENRY LEADER

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Governor Dewey's entire legislative program today appeared certain of approval despite blistering initial Democratic criticism which the minority leaders indicated would grow in volume.

Almost immediately after Dewey had finished reading his 11,000-word annual message to the legislature yesterday, Assembly Minority Chief Irwin Steingut opened up on the potential candidate for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination.

Steingut said he was 'deeply disappointed, surprised and shocked" at Dewey's failure to recommend a new bond issue for permanent low-rent public housing construction.

He also professed consternation at Dewey's failure to recommend immediate action toward establishment of a state university.

He had criticism, too, of the governor's declaration of no more state aid for localities, but said he would defer a detailed attack on this until Monday night, when the legislature reconvenes.

Senate Minority Leader Elmer F. Quinn was briefer. He said of the message: "It's just a rehash of what we already knew."

Lee B. Mailler, newly appointed Republican majority leader of the assembly, termed the message "an excellent speech carrying forward the first term program of progressive government for the benefit of the entire state."

Feinberg's Reaction

To Senate Majority Leade Benjamin J. Feinberg, Dewey "once again demonstrated the foresight and progressive vision which he constantly has shown as chief executive."

Private Republican reaction to criticisms seemed to be one of amused disdain. With the G.O.P. holding a two-to-one majority in both houses and its leaders obviously in accord with the governor's program, it seemed likely that Democratic attacks would not endanger the administration's major measures.

Dewey himself, in his message, noted the record majority by which he won re-election and he interpreted this as public approval of his policies.

Steingut assailed Dewey's recommendation that no further bond issue should be contemplated for public permanent housing because $272,000,000 of a $300,000,000 bond issue remains unspent.

Contrary to Pledge

He said it was contrary to a G.O.P. campaign pledge and the governor "practically took the position of killing any future housing appropriation."

Steingut argued that now is the time to plan for future building, "not 48 hours before we are ready to start building."

He urged that the question of a $500,000,000 bond issue be submitted to the voters next fall.

Mailler replied that with $272,000,000 unspent, but committed, and with the continuing shortage of building materials, there was no need of haste in considering a new bond issue.

Dewey's announcement that the Young Commission studying the need of a state university would make a "preliminary" report in a few days drew from Steingut the observation that "the time has passed for making studies. The time has come to make plans for setting up a state university."

He urged that the question be put to the voters next November in the form of a proposed $50,000,000 bond issue.

The Democrats are expected to train their heaviest fire on Dewey for his decision not to grant more state aid to localities. The governor said yesterday they now receive 55 per cent of the state's taxable income.

Church, Property Owners Propose Wider Wall Street

First Dutch Church Also Favors Removal of Tree at Main and Fair

The First Dutch Reformed Church and other property owners on Wall street are favorable to the proposition of deeding land to widen the street, it was announced at yesterday's monthly meeting of the Street Traffic Committee of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce.

The First Dutch Reformed Church also views with favor the suggestion that the large tree that protrudes on the corner of Main and Fair streets be taken down in order to improve traffic conditions at that point.

A suggestion was made that this tree be replaced by a few smaller trees to preserve the natural beauty of the area. A committee was designated to send a letter to the Consistory of the First Dutch Reformed Church suggesting that the church petition the Board of Public Works to remove the tree.

It was further suggested that the cost of removal of the tree come from city funds, provdied the church pays for the planting of the new trees. The letter will also suggest that the Board of Public Works be asked to draw up specific plans to show its proposal for the best way to widen Wall street.

Superintendent Ernest Steuding of the Board of Public Works reported that material for the reflector sign to be erected at the

Food Brokers Say Prices Will Drop

Composite Views Show Eggs Are Exception in 'Futures'

By WILLIAM FERRIS

Chicago, Jan. 9 (AP)—The men who are among the best informed about food prices, the brokers on the country's commodity exchange markets, think prices will go lower.

Many New Year predictions have been made recently by banks, economists and businessmen concerning future prices. But the forecasts on exchanges are the composite opinions of brokers dealing in the commodities.

Butter prices are high, but you can buy some butter today on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange for delivery in June at about 53 cents a pound. That's around 22 cents under present wholesale prices.

For the average person who just wants some butter to spread on bread that wouldn't be practical—you'd have to take 19,200 pounds, which is the amount represented by a "futures" contract. To save yourself from being drowned in butter you'd better sell before delivery day.

Bill Asks Dewey To Protect Rights Within Colleges

Permanent Group May Be Named to Guard Against Unfair Treatment

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—A permanent commission to guard against discrimination in New York colleges would be appointed by the Governor under bills introduced in the State Legislature.

The companion measures, proposed by two New York city Democrats, were among 170 dropped in the hopper yesterday as the 170th legislature convened.

Leading the bills were seven to implement Governor Dewey's recommended program, including one calling for an appropriation of $25,000,000 for temporary housing, specifically requested by Dewey in his annual message.

Other major proposals would make it tougher for minority political parties to appear on the state election ballot and extend for one year the State's residential rent control law, and the business and commercial rent laws affecting New York city.

Senator Francis J. Mahoney and Assemblyman Bernard Austin introduced the anti-discrimination bills, providing for establishment of a three-member commission against discrimination in colleges because of race, religion, nationality or color.

Senator Pliny W. Williamson, Westchester Republican, authored two bills aimed at minor political parties.

One would require political parties to poll 250,000 votes in a gubernatorial election to remain on the ballot, effective the first time with the 1948 vote.

Now a party is dropped from the ballot if it fails to receive 50,000 gubernatorial votes.

The other proposal would make it harder for the minor parties to get on the ballot in the first place. It would require that independent nominating petitions require 25,000 signatures with at least 150 from each county.

The present requirement is 12,000 signatures, at least 50 from each county.

Would Boost Salaries

Among 30 other bills introduced by Williamson were measures increasing the state banking superintendent's and tax commission president's salaries from $12,000 to $15,000 and the other two commissioners from $10,000 to $14,000.

The seven administration bills asked by Dewey provide:

Eleanor Lays Crash to Sun; 2 Say She Mentioned Dozing

White Plains, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said yesterday in an affidavit that when her car was involved in a collision with two other automobiles last August in Yonkers the "afternoon sun was shining directly in my eyes."

"There was a momentary lapse during which I crossed the white line and the accident occurred," she added in the document which was submitted at a hearing into the accident before a state motor vehicle commission referee.

Referee William F. Glasheen of Albany, who has authority to continue Mrs. Roosevelt's driver's license in force, suspend or revoke it, reserved decision in the case. The decision will be filed in Albany.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who was not present at the hearing, explained in the affidavit she was unable to appear "for the reason that I had agreed to make a public address at a luncheon meeting, notice of which cannot well be recalled."

She recounted her long experience driving cars and said:

"My vision has never bothered me in any way, either as to color or any other respect * * *."

The widow of the late president lost several teeth in the accident.

Albert Brooks, 51, of New York city, driver of the first car Mrs. Roosevelt's automobile allegedly struck, testified she told him immediately after the accident, "I must have dozed off."

Westchester County Parkway Patrolman William Wo Segnit testified that "Mrs. Roosevelt stated to me that she must have dozed at the wheel."

But Robert S. Rose of 300 Spring street, Ossining, driver of the third car, testified Mrs. Roose-

Howard Is Given Civil Service Post; List Is Prepared

Paul J. Kaman Resigns as Secretray After Three Years; to Name Captain

Election of a secretary and preparing an eligible list for the post of fire captain in the Kingston Fire Department were the principal items of business taken up at a special meeting of the Municipal Civil Service Commission held Wednesday evening.

The board accepted the resignation of Paul J. Kaman of 18 Elmendorf street, who has been serving as secretary for the past three years, and elected Russell E. Howard, of 54 Brewster street, to succeed Mr. Kaman.

Mr. Howard is a former president of the Department of Public Welfare and is manager of the Bull Market on Smith avenue.

Last fall the board held promotional examinations to make up an eligible list from which the fire board could appoint a fire captain.

The eligible list as prepared by the civil service board is headed by Edwin P. Murphy of 37 Smith avenue and Julius E. Buchholtz of 80 Hunter street, who are disabled veterans of World War 2. The others on the eligible list are Howard Myer of 69 Elmendorf street, Philip Maines of 19 Snyder avenue, Glyndon M. Southard of 84 Clifton avenue, and Joseph Disch of 345 Broadway.

Two Injured in Early Morning Auto Crash

Two persons were injured, but not seriously, and two automobiles damaged in a collision at Clinton avenue and Franklin street at 12:15 o'clock this morning, according to a police report.

The cars involved in the crash were driven by Harold Dittus of 166 Pine street, traveling west on Franklin street, and Joseph Garland of 33 Janet street, who was proceeding south on Clinton avenue.

Mrs. George C. Rifenbary of 378 Albany avenue, riding in the Garland car, suffered an injury to her right knee, and Henry Uhl of 20 Ravine street, a passenger in the Dittus car, suffered an injured right hand.

The Dittus car was forced up on the sidewalk by the force of the impact and crashed into a mail box on the corner and into the traffic pole. The right front door and front fender on the auto were damaged. Damage to the Garland car was to the left front end and fender.

City Has $23,890,326 In Assessable Property

Assessments Show Net Increase of $304,985 Over 1945-46 Figures; Reflects Very Little in New Building

The new total of tax assessable property in Kingston for 1947 is $23,890,326, according to the new books opened at the office of the city assessor in city hall.

The total represents a net increase of $304,985 over the 1945-46 figures. Actual realty values are increased $317,321 while special franchise valuations fixed by the State Tax Commission remain almost static.

The realty increase, according to a check of the new rolls, came mostly from boom prices paid in Kingston real estate transactions during the past year. Some came from new construction but reflects only a small part of the building program planned for the future but held up because of the lack of material.

The new assessments are: Real property, $22,851,372; special franchises, $1,437,900; exemptions, $398,946.

The losses in assessments in some wards is the result of the tax law which provides that real property purchased with the proceeds of a pension, bonus or insurance granted by the United States or New York State for military or naval services is exempt from taxation to the extent that such moneys are used in or toward purchase of the property.

This exemption is permissible only when the property is owned by the person who rendered the service or by his wife or widow, or dependent father or mother, or by his minor children. The exemption applies to all county, city, town and village taxes, but not to school taxes. No such exemptions may be allowed in excess of $5,000.

A comparison of real estate valuations by wards follows:

Port Authority Gets Right To Build Truck Terminal

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Port of New York Authority has received permission to begin construction on a $5,000,000 motor-truck terminal, the largest of its kind in the country.

Authorization for preliminary construction came yesterday from the Civilian Production Administration, whose regional director, Ralph A. Parker, said the Port Authority was empowered to erect footings, foundations and a structural framework for the four-block two-story building, which will handle the great bulk of over-the-road shipments pouring into New York.

The site is below the Greenwich Village section in Manhattan. Demolition of structures there already have been completed.

Parker said only structural steel and other materials unsuitable for veterans' housing would be used in the initial construction, and completion of the terminal building "must await a time when sufficient building materials can be obtained without inter-

Assemblyman Hatfield Introduces Measure Today; Referred to Committee

Points Are Given

Ten Salient Points of New Measure Are Cited

Republican Senator Arthur H. Wicks, of this city, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, yesterday introduced a new Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge bill before the Legislature.

Senator Wicks' action on the opening of the 1947 convocation of the Senate and Assembly at the State Capitol, Albany, fulfills a pledge made last year that he would continue to work for the erection of a span over the Hudson river.

It was learned today that the new measure, which will be known as the Wicks-Hatfield bill, was one of the first introduced in the Senate. Action by Dutchess County Assemblyman Ernest I. Hatfield was taken today.

Concurrence Is Required

The bill introduced in the 1946 Legislature, and which was vetoed by Governor Thomas E. Dewey after its unanimous acceptance by the Senate and Assembly, in effect made it the duty of the State Bridge Authority to construct the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge.

The present bill requires unanimous action by the Bridge Authority and the State Superintendent of Public Works, if it shall be found in the public interest to construct the bridge.

Another outstanding feature of the 1947 Wicks-Hatfield bill is that the Bridge Authority shall be continued as long as it shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding, and until it shall be discontinued by law.

The new bill introduced yesterday was referred to Senator Wicks' Finance Committe. Action it was said, will be forthcoming soon.

Text Will Appear

The text of the bridge bill, together with explanatory material, will appear in an early issue of The Freeman.

Salient features of the new measure may be summarized as follows:

1.—The existence of the Authority is continued so long as it shall have bonds or other obligations outstanding, including bonds or obligations hereafter issued or incurred and until its existence shall be terminated by law.

2.—The Authority is authorized to make investigations for the purpose of determining whether it is in the public interest to construct the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge; and if the Authority and the Superintendent of Public Works finds that it is in the public interest, the Authority is authorized to construct the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge.

3.—The Authority is authorized with the approval of the Superintendent of Public Works to improve highway connections leading to the bridge.

4.—The cost of maintenance and operation of the Kingston-Rhinecliff Ferry may be paid from any revenues of the Authority.

5.—The Authority is authorized to discontinue the operation of the ferry, if and when, the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge is opened to traffic.

6.—The Authority is authorized to contract with the holders of bonds as to the custody collection, securing an investment of moneys of the Authority.

(This clause is inserted so that the Authority may provide for the deposit of money with the trustees for the security of its bonds. This clause is derived from a corresponding clause which has been found important in the Triborough Bridge—Tunnel Authority Act and other Authority Statutes.)

Bond Limit Raised

7.—The Authority is authorized to issue eight million dollars of bonds outstanding at any one time instead of the present limit of three million dollars of bonds, to be redeemable in not exceeding ten years at a premium of not exceeding five per cent.

8.—The Authority is given power to issue a short time note maturing not later than five years provided that the bonds and note

Report of Seal Sale Is Given by Campaign Head

Participation in the 1946 Christmas Seal Sale showed widespread interest in the work of the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, which is supported by the Seal Sale, according to a report made by Edmund P. Rochford, campaign chairman.

The report revealed nearly 40 volunteers had assisted with various phases of the campaign, special programs were presented, several persons spoke on tuberculosis control before groups, all high school papers carried articles on tuberculosis and Christmas Seals, all churches throughout the county observed Christmas Seal Sunday and bulletins were used for the congregations of 17 parishes, also nine newspapers used items about the Seal Sale and 16 programs were presented over Station WKNY and that all theaters in Ulster county showed the Christmas Seal trailer.

"This widespread participation in the campaign means that we were able to reach all groups in the county with the message of the Christmas Seal and how it supports work to eradicate tuberculosis from our county," said Mr. Rochford. "The generous contributions of the people to the Seal Sale campaign, contributions of time, thought and money, are deeply appreciated. Their reward will be reaped as we succeed in routing tuberculosis from our midst."

Harry E. Ensign, president of the association, thanked the Seal Sale chairman and his committee for their excellent work and said that as the result of the well conducted campaign the association will shortly launch its 1947 program, including health education, free chest X-rays, and assistance to patients and clinics as well as assistance in the rehabilitation program for patients at the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital.

Paris Faces Jail For 10 Years, Fines May Be $20,000

Jury Convicts Dapper Paris and Court Hints Investigation Is Still Going On

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—Smooth-talking Alvin J. Paris faced a possible prison term of 10 years and a fine of $20,000 today as the result of his conviction on charges of attempting to "rig" the December 15 professional football title game between the New York Giants and the Chicago Bears.

His father, Sidney Paris, told newsmen shortly after his son's conviction by a general sessions court jury late yesterday that the verdict would be appealed. The jury of 10 men and two women deliberated only 65 minutes before returning the verdict.

The police investigation apparently did not end with conviction of the dapper Paris, who was specifically charged with offering bribes to Merle Hapes and Frank Filchock, backfield players of the Giants, to "lay down" in the game.

Judge Saul S. Streit, who fixed January 28 for imposing sentence, told Paris after the verdict:

"My advice to you is: Cooperate with the district attorney if you expect any consideration from this court."

Assistant District Attorney George P. Monaghan, who prosecuted the case, had said he considered Paris an agent of a gambling syndicate possibly centering in New Jersey.

Each count of the two count indictment against Paris carries maximum penalties of a $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment.

Hapes, Filchock Suspended

Immediately after the conviction, Hapes and Filchock were suspended by Bert Bell, National Professional Football League commissioner, who said that an immediate hearing would be conducted to decide on possible league action against the two.

Bell said the suspension of the players, who testified Tuesday as to the alleged bribe offers, meant neither could participate in any league activity until a decision in the case was announced.

Both Filchock and Hapes admitted on the stand they had not told police or Giants' officials of the alleged bribe offers. Filchock testified he had informed Mayor O'Dwyer a few hours before the game that he had not been offered a bribe, although he said this was untrue.

Bell said when the case first broke that he considered withholding of information conduct detrimental to football and that such an offense could be punishable by lifetime banishment from the National League.

Filchock had been permitted to play against the Bears, tossing the passes leading to his team's only scores. The Bears won 24-14. Hapes had not been permitted to participate.

The defense surprisingly rested its case yesterday without calling a witness. The prosecution had completed its case in a single day on Tuesday. The trial opened Monday when the jury was selected.

Americans in Peiping Expect Withdrawal

Peiping, Jan. 9 (AP)—Most Americans here are of the opinion that General Marshall's strong statement on China will lead to the abolition of Executive (truce) Headquarters here and the withdrawal of the U. S. Marines from the country.

A highly placed American, after reading the statement in which Marshall blamed extremists of both the Kuomintang (Government Party) and the Communists for China's trouble, was asked if it naturally followed that the headquarters would be abolished.

He did not put it that directly, but since U. S. representatives work with both government and Communist commissioners in the headquarters, summed it up this way:

"The United States cannot permit the Chinese to conduct a civil war under the auspices of executive headquarters.

"We will have to make the first move toward closing down this organization. Neither the government nor the Communists will take the responsibility of assuming the stigma attached to dissolving this last peace organization."

Chinese and American officials in Nanking also speculated that the Peiping headquarters would be closed.

Marcantonio Is Orphan Of Congress; Unwanted

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Rep. Vito Marcantonio is the orphan of the new Congress—and nobody wants to adopt him.

The fiery New Yorker who wears the tag of the American Labor Party is the only member of a minor party left in Congress. The Republicans and Democrats between them have shooed out all the rest over the last few years.

Like every other congressman, Marcantonio wants to know what committee he will serve on. He's been on the Commerce Committee. Unlike other congressmen, he also wants to know which major party is going to parcel out his committee post to him.

Ask the Democrats and they say:

"Don't know. Looks as if the Republicans ought to take care of him. The majority party always handles committee assignments for minor party members."

Ask the Republicans and they tell you:

"Don't know. Looks as if the Democrats should fix him up. He got the Democratic nomination and ran as a Democratic candidate, didn't he?"

The Democrats concede Marcantonio ran on two tickets. But they point to the record books. Marcantonio is listed only as an American Laborite.

So—the best G.O.P. and Democratic leaders can suggest is that they will have to confer about Marcantonio. Maybe flip for him.

Arms Program Is To Go Before U.N. Security Council

Lake Success, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—The United Nations basic arms reduction program goes before the Security Council today, with delegates hoping for a minimum of preliminary procedural debate on the far-reaching problem.

As the council was called into session (3 p. m. E.S.T.) there were two potential roadblocks to speedy opening of the substance of the question.

The Soviet Government has demanded that the council set up a commission to implement the arms slashing program laid down by the General Assembly within 90 days, and the United States has countered with an appeal that control of atomic energy be given priority.

Some delegates were said to feel that the proper procedure would be to pass over both motions and begin a systematic discussion of the assembly resolution. These countries were represented as believing such action would move the council logically to the core of the problem and allow it to make decisions as consideration progressed.

The United States was reported ready to drop its demand if Russia would follow suit, the American position generally being only one of insistence that atomic energy not be by-passed. There was no indication of what attitude Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko would take.

SAFETY FROM HOTEL FIRES

There have been several spectacular and disastrous fires in recent months in hotels throughout the country. Since everyone will be conscious of fire danger now in hotels, the National Fire Protection Association offers some fire safety precautions.

When entering a hotel room inspect it for possible fire exits. Find the stairs and fire escapes and find the best way from the stairs to the street.

Inquire about the fire warning system used to alert guests.

Plan for the use of windows as emergency exits and do not smoke in bed.

Follow firemen's orders at all times.

The United Nations is worrying about the split atom. Remember the good old days when the only thing we had to worry about was the split infinitive?

ROAD SIGNS

Road signs, says William Feather, Cleveland publisher, should never be planned by anyone familiar with a neighborhood. A Chicagoan cannot believe that anyone is so ignorant as not to know the location of Michigan Boulevard.

Detroiters, asked how to get to the Ambassador Bridge to Canada, invariably reply merely, "Oh, you can't miss it!" On a foggy day this does little good, for the bridge itself is high overhead and the approaches are hidden in a maze of narrow little streets on which the driver must go away from the river instead of toward the river as he would naturally incline to do.

There is a spot where the driver to Pensacola, in spite of enormous signs at the fork, only too easily takes the wrong road and finds himself in Mobile.

A few years ago an alert newspaper discovered that in its downtown districts no one had bothered to put up route numbers. Local residents did not care whether their main street was U. S. 42 or 60.

It takes more than a board and paint pot to direct travelers well. It calls for imagination as to what the traveler thinks and how he feels by the time he reaches the given point. The big travel of the next few years is only beginning. It's time to give thought to these matters. Besides, the wild winds of winter naturally bring with them the thoughts of summer trips.

A man accused of bribing a professional football player was indicted the day after the charge became public. No one can call these public officials slow in this matter of really vital public welfare.

NO LACK OF HONOR

It has been reported from various sources that cheating and immorality in American colleges have increased lately. The implication has been that such an increase is the result of the influx of war veterans into college.

Investigating these rumors, R. H. Kirkpatrick has interviewed the heads of representative Ohio colleges and his report is reassuring. From the large state university to the smallest liberal arts college, the verdict is that the proportion of students found lacking in personal integrity is no larger than in former years, and that, on the other hand, the veteran students with their wider experience and maturity of outlook, are acting as a positive force in favor of serious study.

It seems obvious that honor or the lack of it does not depend upon age nor upon a sheltered school life as a pre-requisite for college, but rather upon early home training and the setting of high character standards by home, school and community.

A survey of recent fires suggests that possibly the most outrageous of all crimes is arson.

TRADE AND PEACE

TheState Department has its Five Year Plan. The purpose is promotion of international trade. Designed to encourage economic development of member nations, to break trade barriers between countries and to increase employment for all, it is hoped that within five years working machinery will be set up under the International Trade Organization.

In order to spread national interest, public hearings on a charter for such an organization are to be staged in February and March in Washington, Boston, Chicago, New Orleans, Denver and San Francisco. The smoother the flow of business, the greater prosperity everywhere, with better-buying customers all over the world, wanting to maintain peace.

'These Days'

By George E. Sokolsky

MR. TRUMAN ON LABOR

The United States existed before 1948 and will undoubtedly continue after November in that year. Mr. Truman's message to Congress on the state of the union does not read that way. Its gentleness is aimed at 1948. Its object is to displease no one or to balance one displeasure against another. He even speaks kindly of the Republicans and notes that he is the twentieth President who has had to deal with a Congress one or both of whose chambers was in control of the opposition party. From that standpoint, the 1946 election was rather usual, for we have only had 33 Presidents and most therefore found themselves in Mr. Truman's predicament.

That was an astute approach to the subject of normalcy. Mr. Truman is a normal American President because both Houses of Congress are controlled by the opposition. Therefore, he proposes a program, much of which has to do with labor upon which the President and the Republicans can co-operate in pursuit of normalcy. His very simple program is not punitive. In fact, he eschews the punitive as he does the vindictive. He favors some simple modifications of current laws, but nothing too drastic lest the good suffer with the bad. And the bad are few, while the good are many. It is all so interesting and informative.

Whatever labor legislation is passed must not "restrict the proper rights of the rank and file of labor." Not one word is said about the responsibilities and obligations of the rank and file of labor. He says:

"We must remember, in reviewing the record of disputes in 1946, that management shares with labor the responsibility for failure to reach agreements which would have averted strikes. For that reason, we must realize that industrial peace cannot be achieved merely by laws directed against labor unions."

Mr. Truman knows that that is literally untrue, but he undoubtedly hopes and expects that we shall all forget that he himself set off the murrain of strikes by his summary assumption delivered to the nation on October 30, 1945, in which he held that wages could be increased but prices must remain stationary. He held that industry could afford to absorb these increases. He apparently made that statement on the basis of a report by Henry Wallace to the effect that all industry could raise wages 10 per cent in 1946, and the automobile industry 15 per cent with another 10 per cent in 1947, without raising prices. Wallace's report estimated car production at 3,500,000 in 1946—which we did not quite do. The strike started because Wallace's report leaked to the C.I.O., which acted accordingly. The blame is fixed.

It is important to remember this because new labor legislation must, if it is to be of value, restore collective bargaining which has been hampered by the NLRB and was ignored by the WLB. Mr. Truman says:

"During the last decade and a half, we have established a national labor policy in this country based upon free collective bargaining as the process for determining wages and working conditions."

But that is precisely what neither he nor his predecessors did. They constantly interfered with "free collective bargaining." The Wagner Act interposed the government not as an umpire but as an active participant in collective bargaining. It is the Wagner Act which stimulates jurisdictional strikes by its curious system of elections. It leaves too little to management and elevates the labor union official to the altitude of a Chinese warlord. It served the labor union official and not the rank and file of labor. That has to be changed if free collective bargaining is to be restored.

Mr. Truman's four-point program does not solve the Management-Labor problems nor restore free collective bargaining. Nor will it come from "additional governmental assistance in bargaining." There is too much governmental assistance already. There was so much during the war, in the WLB, as to approach fascism—that is, the Italian method of control through government in the interest of government. That is intolerable in a free society. Legislation to amend the Wagner Act is then the first order of the day—and that Mr. Truman does not say.

AILING TEETH IN AIR TRAVEL

One of the embarrasing things experienced by those wishing to enter the navy is to find, after being inducted, that they are subject to seasickness which often persists for a long time. It is said that more than one admiral in the British and also in the United States Navy become seasick during maneuvers. Similar conditions exist in the air force, as it often takes a number of flights before some air cadets become used to flying.

Even when the airman does not become air sick, he may suffer with pain in teeth and gums during air travel. This is called aerodontalgia. It is caused by altered barometric pressure. Fortunately this condition and its cause can be discovered before ascending into the air, during the physical examination by means of the low air pressure chamber.

In the United States Naval Medical Bulletin, Drs. O. E. Reynolds, H. C. Hutchins, A. Y. Werner, and F. R. Philbrook report their examination and study of 920 persons in the Marine Corps in the low pressure chamber. Of this number 37 experienced aerodontalgia. Five of the 37 experienced toothache during the ascent and 32 during descent. Teeth defects were found in the region of the pain in more than nine-tenths of the cases, and more than three-fourths had a history of having had inflammation of the large sinus in the cheek bone or upper jaw, or of some infection of nose and throat.

"Pain is so severe as to render one incapable of performing important tasks with proficiency."

These physicians recommend that tests be made and, if aerodontalgia occurs, that all defects of teeth and air passages be corrected before flights are made. It has been found also that simply blowing open the eustachian tubes, which carry air from throat to middle ear, will prevent aerodontalgia in some cases. The use of benzedrine inhaler during ascent may be effective in preventing odontalgia.

These facts, while of interest to military flyers, should be known to everybody as correction of defects, blowing open the tubes, and the use of the benzedrine inhaler may make it possible for many to avoid aerodontalgia.

Circus-Type Rally Planned by Scouts February 8 to 15

Two Rings Will Be Set Up at State Armory for Events; Awards to Be Handed Out

Boy Scout Week will be observed by Kingston district with a unique rally at the New York State Armory, Manor avenue, coupled with a Court of Honor for the presentation of awards.

The seven day period will start on February 8 and conclude on the 15th, and during that time the families and friends of scouts, holding invitations, may attend the feature at the armory.

It is planned by the committee on arrangements to hold a circus-type rally with two rings, one devoted to booths displaying work done by Scouts to qualify for Merit Badges, the other for competitive scoutcraft events.

Ring one for the exhibits will be in the inside drill hall at the armory, the other is to be situated in the spacious drill shed with the dirt floor for competitive events and the Court of Honor.

Events planned are: Scout pace, signalling (Morse and semaphore), rescue from drowning, involving a working knowledge of various knots; fire building by flint, steel and friction, and a Cub Scout tug of war.

Prizes for Efforts

Ribbons will be awarded to the first three winners in each competitive event, and to troops displaying exhibit booths.

There will be two ringmasters, Herman Franz, Kingston district commissioner and Carlton Taylor, assistant commissioner. Assistance will be given by neighborhood commissioners of the local and other districts.

Court of Honor

At the Court of Honor, there will be presentation of Stars, Life and Eagle Badges, and recognition of all Scouts of the district who since last district Court of Honor have qualified for Merit Badges. There also will be presentation of the Round-up Banner to the winner for the district.

Posters to be displayed throughout the city, advertising the rally, will be made by the Scouts, who will compete for art prizes—a sleeping bag, mountain trooper's rucksack and wrist compass.

There Will Be Some Changes in U. S. Relation to Other Countries Through Marshall Appointment

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Jan. 9—Although there is every reason to say that, in a broad sense, the policy of the United States in relation to other countries is unchanged by reason of the appointment of General Marshall to be secretary of state, actually there will be some changes.

The personality of a secretary of state is inextricably interwoven with the making of policy. Concessions, compromises, affirmative or negative steps in the day-by-day formulation of policy soon take on the flavor of the personality at the top.

It can be said that generally speaking, the United States policy toward Russia, for instance, will be the same. It will be a development of the Byrnes policy and certainly no swing toward the Wallace viewpoint.

In relation to China, the policy of the United States will be distinctively a Marshall policy because the new secretary is more familiar with it than anyone in Washington.

In relation to Latin America, it will be a policy that seeks to strengthen friendship and strives especially to find a basis for understanding with Argentina. The theory that the policy toward Argentina is a special one is inaccurate. The policy of the United States toward Argentina is a hemisphere affair. Many nations in Latin America have looked askance at the tendency in Washington to make policies by straightening out personnel frictions.

Ambassador Messersmith is back from Argentina for a visit, and Spruille Braden, the assistant secretary of state, has been referred to as opposing the ambassador's views. But broad policy cannot be made by internal debates with respect to the handling of one country. The external facts have a bearing, too. The Latin American nations are a unit, for instance, in expecting Argentina to live up to her pledges and international obligations and they do not believe Argentina will default. But the Latin American world would feel that the United States is being more meticulous with respect to Argentina than other countries if the feud with the Buenos Aires administration is kept going even after the agreements made heretofore are followed out. General Marshall is said to have been the real author of the mutual defense plan of standardized arms which Argentina is anxious to adopt.

The real policy of the Department of State will be made by the advisers and assistants chosen by the new secretary. Who will be undersecretary of state? Who will occupy the key posts in the department in the various bureaus?

General Marshall is a great organizer. As a military leader, he has a record of selecting good men and giving them plenty of responsibility and freedom of action. But the general also knows how to remove men quickly when they fail to measure up.

In a way, the new secretary will be giving a demonstration of military efficiency but without the militarized point of view which so often the occasion of concern when military men are suggested for civilian posts. There will continue, of course, to be such a suspicion but General Marshall is skillful in handling himself and he, perhaps more than most military men, is sensitive to the currents of public opinion and the pitfalls that face anyone in public life who doesn't accommodate himself to the ways of representative government and democracy.

General Marshall has had a good deal of experience with Congress, and, while the new task will challenge him, it is one that one can assume he undertakes with considerable self-confidence. Incidentally, apart from the admiration, amounting almost to worship which President Truman has for General Marshall, it is worth noting that when Mr Truman began thinking of a successor to Secretary Byrnes, his mind turned immediately to the general because the latter already had much background in foreign affairs.

The general was present, for instance, at the Roosevelt conferences at Casablanca, Teheran Cairo, Quebec and Yalta. He has in his mind the intimate details of the very difficult and complex diplomacy that went on behind the scenes during the war. To a remarkable degree, the general shared the confidence of the late President Roosevelt. Few men attended all those conferences. Admiral King is the only other man of top rank who was present. Even Mr. Byrnes did not attend them all.

So the background knowledge which General Marshall has on the complicated questions of our relationship with Russia and Britain will come in handy. This does not mean that the new secretary will know it all from the start. He will rely on the trained men of the foreign service, many of whom know him already.

Appeal Is Argued Concerning Death Of Raymond Glass

An appeal was argued Wednesday before the Appellate Division in the matter of Utica Mutual Insurance Company against Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation. The appeal was from an order of Justice William Murray denying the application of the Central Hudson to bring in as defendants Chester A. Miller and Florian Tischhauser. N. Le Van Haver and John E. Egan appeared for appellant, Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation, and Arthur B. Ewig appeared for respondent.

The action arises out of the death of Raymond Glass who was electrocuted while working on an electric line at Rifton. Plaintiff alleged that the accident was due to a defective or poorly installed switch while the appellant corporation contends that there was no faulty construction but that the wrong switch was thrown by the electrical contractor and when the wrong switch was thrown on a pole the line was not cut off. Central Hudson contends that this was negligence on the part of the contractor or his agent and that he therefore should be brought in as a party defendant.

Application was made by Central Hudson to bring in the parties Miller and Tischhauser and Justice Murray denied the application. The appeal was then taken.

Welcomes 10,000 Pilots

Miami, Fla., Jan. 9 (AP)—Air-minded Miami spread her wings in welcome today for the 10,000 army, navy, marine and civilian pilots and air enthusiasts who will participate in the 15th annual all-American air maneuvers at the navy's master airport Jan. 10-12. More than 500 aircraft—ranging in size from the army's giant B-29 superfort to small private cubs—have already arrived for the three-day meet, and about 3,000 are expected before the event begins Friday.

Marshall Reaches Isles

Honolulu, Jan. 9 (AP)—General Marshall, returning to the United States from China to become secretary of state, landed at Hickam Field at 11 p. m. last night (4:30 a. m., today, E.S.T.) and was kissed warmly by his wife. The general looked extremely well rested despite his long flight from Nanking via Guam, where his C-54 transport was refueled. He declined to make any statement on his new position.

Streamline Assembly

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 9 (AP)—Pennsylvania's Senate today took up the task of streamlining the General Assembly's personnel set-up with the expressed aim of more efficient lawmaking. House Bill No. One—a measure eliminating obsolete jobs and providing additional stenographic help for legislative committees—moved into the upper branch after unanimous passage by the State House of Representatives at a brief midnight session.

Polish Voters Are Given Promise of Making Choice

Warsaw, Jan. 9 (AP)—Voters in most of Poland were promised a choice between their Communist-dominated government and an outspoken opposition today through the Polish Peasant party's decision to contest the Jan. 19 election in 42 of the 52 electoral districts.

Vice Premier Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, head of the Peasant party, and his executive committee announced last night after an eight-hour session that the party would campaign in those districts in which the government had accepted its candidate lists.

The party, which had threatened to boycott the election throughout Poland on the grounds of irregularities and intimidation, will urge its followers to stay away from the polls only in the 10 districts in which the government denied its candidates the right to file, Mikolajczyk said. This means more than 2,500,000 voters will be left without a choice.

May Have Forced Nation

Some observers had said a countrywide boycott by the Peasant party might have impelled the nation toward civil war. The government had accused Mikolajczyk's party of tieups with subversive underground armies.

A government spokesman declared yesterday that Peasant party candidate lists had been rejected in the 10 districts under an election-law provision that any person accused of underground activities might be denied the right to vote or run for office. He said the districts were underground hotbeds.

Seven Persons Saved

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Seven persons, including two elderly women who were carried down on ladders from their second floor rooms, were forced to flee last night by a fire which damaged the basement of a three-story brick building in downtown Albany (91 Hudson avenue). The women, Mrs. Mary Crawford and Mrs. Amelia Kelly, were trapped by smoke. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Dog Poisoning Reported

Another case of dog poisoning was reported to the police department Wednesday afternoon, making the third in the past several days. Mrs. Everett Gilbert of 10 Second avenue, reported that her collie dog had died of poisoning Wednesday afternoon. The case was referred to Detectives Clarence Brophy and Wesley Cramer who are investigating the other two cases reported.

Says Car Was Damaged

Mrs. Marion Bullard of Woodstock reported to the police Wednesday that while her auto was parked on John street it had been struck and damaged by a car bearing an Illinois license plate. She said that the driver of the offending car did not stop but proceeded on. The rear left fender and tail light on the Bullard car were damaged.

Parked All Night

Peter Telepas of 555 Broadway, arrested Wednesday by the police on a charge of all night parking on the street, posted $2 bail for his appearance later in police court.

G.O.P. in Congress Is at Odds Over Costs of Defense

Taber Insists Outlays Be Cut Drastically, While Taft Has Other Views

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—Congressional Republicans are at odds among themselves today over national defense costs

Rep. Taber (N. Y.) is demanding that Army-Navy outlays be cut drastically while Senator Taft (Ohio) is counseling against such a course.

Taber, who heads the new House appropriations committee, told a reporter he is convinced the military services can get along with $8,000,000,000 between them in the budget year beginning next July 1

Furthermore, he said that if President Truman recommends a larger amount in the budget message to Congress tomorrow, steps will be taken to trim the proposed expenditures

Taft, chairman of the Senate G.O.P. steering committee, told a newsman he thinks Senate Republicans want to find budget reductions elsewhere and not make them at the expense of national defense

Senator Bridges (R.-N.H.), who heads the Senate appropriations committee, shares this overall view. He said however, he and others will insist that savings be effected where military purchasing, intelligence and similar operations can be combined

Bridges said he thinks a number of army camps, now being maintained in this country with skeleton staffs, could be closed and some reductions made that way

Taber contended that about $2,500,000,000 can be lopped off military expenditures for items and services that were necessary in the past, but no longer needed.

Rep. Plumley (R.-Vt.), who heads a naval appropriations subcommittee, voiced the opinion that "substantial savings" can be made in the navy's budget, in comparison with the present year.

If President Truman fixes total federal spending at about $37,000,000,000 as generally forecast, Taft said it seemed likely that from $10,000,000,000 to $12,000,000,000 of this amount would be for the Army and Navy

He said that while Senate Republicans would favor paring the larger amount, he doubted if they would wish to challenge the smaller, except where it was apparent savings could be made without impairing military efficiency.

He has no doubt, Taft continued, that Republicans can find places to cut off at least $3,500,000,000 from a $37,000,000,000 budget without any drastic defense reductions.

Any clash of viewpoints between House and Senate Republicans is likely to come to a head shortly when the taxing and appropriating committees of both houses meet to make their own survey of prospective income and proposed spending This procedure, a new one, is called for under the Congressional Reorganization Law.

The taxing contingent—Senators Millikin (R.-Colo.) and George (D.-Ga.) and Reps Knutson (R.-Minn.) and Doughton (D.-N.C.)—was promised an advance look at the income situation in a conference today with Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder.

That meeting will bring the first head-on collision between the Republican drive for a 20 per cent slash in income levies and the Democratic administration's firm stand against any immediate tax cuts.

President's Rent Appeal Meets Senate Trouble

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—President Truman's appeal for extension of rent control beyond June 30 collided in the Senate today with a bill to junk the whole program February 1.

Democratic Senator O'Daniel of Texas sponsored the legislation to eliminate controls and Republicans Wherry (Neb.), Moore (Okla.) and Bushfield (S.D.), lined up in support of his proposal. Several other senators said controls should continue but that landlords should be permitted to increase rents as much as 15 percent

Spurred by a decision of the Office of Temporary Controls to eliminate ceilings on transient rooms February 15, organized real estate representatives renewed their demands that rentals of houses and apartments also be freed

"There is not a single reason for motor courts and hotels to get decontrol that doesn't apply to apartment owners," Herbert U. Nelson, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, declared in an interview

In urging the scrapping of rent controls, O'Daniel recalled that he had demanded the end of all O.P.A. restrictions last June

"After the November election the New Dealers finally saw the handwriting on the wall and got rid of most controls," he said

"I think it's time now, if we want to follow the Constitution, to throw all of them out and turn the government back to the people."

Chairman Tobey (R., N. H.) of the Senate Banking Committee, which will consider whether to extend rent controls, said he is "reserving judgment" until hearings are held

Birthday Party for All

The Stewardess Board of the Franklin Street A.M.E. Zion Church announces it is planning a big birthday party, to be held at the church Friday at 8 p. m. They are inviting anyone and everyone who has a birthday in 1947 to be present. There will be novelties in the way of refreshments and entertainment, provided by ladies of the board, under chairmanship of Miss June E. VanDerzee.

Wright to Appoint Bilbo, if Senate Denies Him Seat

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 9 (AP)—Gov. Fielding L. Wright said last night he plans to appoint Theodore G. Bilbo senator for an interim term if the Senate denies him his seat without a hearing or on the basis of charges growing out of his election campaign.

The governor's comment came in the wake of a newspaper account of conversations he had with several Mississippi legislators concerning Bilbo, whom the Senate declined to seat when it convened last week.

Wright said he had discussed his plans for naming Bilbo for an interim term in the belief that his remarks to the Mississippi legislators were off the record.

"I did not intend to inject myself into the controversy in Washington, which I have avoided so far," he added.

Bilbo, at his "Dream House" at Pollarville, Miss., where he is awaiting a call to go to a New Orleans Hospital for an operation on his mouth, said he was "profoundly and inexpressibly grateful" for Governor Wright's decision.

"I think the governor's decision is just recognition of the will of the great majority of the people of Mississippi," Bilbo said. "I feel honored."

Wright's statement came after a day in which the Jackson Business and Professional Women's Club announced adoption of a resolution endorsing Mrs. Thomas L. Bailey, widow of the late governor of Mississippi, for the senatorial interim term if one should occur.

Mrs. Bailey, however, declined to say whether she would be interested in such an appointment.

Meanwhile Toxey Hall, United States district attorney, said that despite an announcement in Washington by the Department of Justice that it was making an investigation of Bilbo, no report of the investigation has been referred to him.

Ely Bans His Bride

Beverly Hills, Calif., Jan. 9 (AP)—Ely Culbertson, 55, the bridge expert, intends to have no competition from his 21-year-old bride. "My pretty wife is an atrocious bridge player," said Culbertson as they arrived here on their honeymoon. "In fact, she is a menace to the game." "I'm afraid Ely doesn't approve of the type of bridge we played at school," echoed the former Dorothea Renata Bachne of New York, a 1946 Vassar graduate. "We'd keep a running gamegoing. From time to time a player would leave to attend a class. Another girl would take her place. It was all very casual." They were married Tuesday in Chandler, Ariz.

OFFICE CAT

By Justus

The not-so-absent-minded professor sent his wife to the bank and kissed his money goodbye.

"Home Executive" as a substitute for "Housewife" has been suggested by a woman columnist; but An editor favors something like "Assistant to the Husband." That crack will call for some appeasement.

A newly married couple boarded the Golden State Limited for their honeymoon. They were in their berths and the bride about every two minutes would exclaim: "Johnny, I just can't convince myself that we are married." This went on and on for half an hour. Finally a voice from the other end of the car shouted, "Johnny, will you convince her so that we all may go to sleep?"

Marriage is something a woman tries when the wolf whistles grow farther and farther apart.

Overheard, one femme to another: "Why no, I didn't tell anyone I didn't know it was a secret."

The Big Thing

Sometimes a man works all his life, grows old, and never gets the things he planned to get, and never knows the reasons why. Yet, the reasons are simple. Too often he thinks only in terms of getting. Too often he only takes; he seldom gives. This is a life of giving and getting, but the element of giving comes first.

A mother took her seven-year-old daughter to a very progressive, modern school. Among the questions asked was this one: "Are you a little girl or little boy?" The little girl answered, "I'm a boy." Well, the teacher went on at a great rate, scaring the poor mother to death by saying the child was psychologically confused, that she should be put with the group of problem children, she wasn't quite bright, etc. On the way home the mother said: "Darling, why did you say you were a little boy?" Her daughter gave her a long look. "Well, when anybody asks me a dumb question, I give a dumb answer."

The reason a dog has so many friends is that his tail wags instead of his tongue.

"How flyme ties!" observed Mrs. Spinney at the end of the cocktail hour.

Woman (on telephone)—I sent my little boy to your store for two pounds of plums and I got only a pound and a half. Your scales must be wrong.

Fruit Dealer—My scales are all right, madam. Have you tried weighing your little boy?

The pier is located in New York harbor nearly opposite the Statue of Liberty. Both the tug and the barge are owned by the Cullen Transportation Company, 80 Broad street, New York city. Battalion Chief William Outlaw said the blaze was caused by a pot stove in the forward galley of the tugboat, which he said had been out of service about two years.

Buffalo Ring Stars Featured on B'nai B'rith Card Tonight

Plenty of Action Promised in Bouts At City Auditorium

Theis-Jenkins Matched in Main Duel; Marlo Hawks, Kennedy and Morton on Bill

The names of boxers on B'nai B'rith's card at the municipal auditorium presage plenty of action tonight, and advance ticket sales indicate the ring gladiators will perform before a capacity crowd.

Nine o'clock is starting time of the fistic bill that will present a trio of Buffalo scrappers for the first time in Kingston—Connie Theis, Niagara District Golden Gloves lightweight champion; Jimmy Kennedy, fighting Irish welterweight, and Alex Ashley, flyweight sensation.

Counts on Paul's Judgment

"Judging from advance notices from Tommy Paul, their trainer, these boys should be some of the best ever seen at the auditorium," was the comment of Dr. Saul Goldfarb, B'nai B'rith boxing chairman.

Tommy Paul is the former N.B.A. featherweight champion, who defeated Johnny Pena for the title in 1932. "He should know good boxers when he sees them," Dr. Goldfarb added.

Dr. Murray Greene, ticket chairman, reports a heavy advance sale.

Jenkins K.O. Puncher

Connie Theis, a rugged Polish-German-American farm boy, with a classy left and a hard right, is matched with New York's Ike Jenkins, ace lightweight, who knocked out Buddy Matthews, another metropolitan battler, and stopped Paul Hawks and Mike Sallie.

Ike is picked as the battler to upset the victory skein of Theis who has won 27 out of 30 matches, 10 by knockouts.

Rest of Card

Other five round bouts:

Jimmy Kennedy, fighting Irish welterweight, Buffalo vs. Jimmy Marlo, Albany, former national Diamond Belt champion, who decisioned the clever Clarence Alleyne, now campaigning as a professional in New York city.

Alex Ashley, 105, Buffalo vs. Sammy Spadaro, Albany, who boxed Leo Lucnello here on the last card.

Paul "Beacon Bomber" Hawks, welterweight vs. Eddie Morton, Albany, who are even after two matches. Hawks won over Morton in Kingston, then Eddie scored an impressive win over him in a main bout in Poughkeepsie.

Three-round preliminaries:

Paul Allegro, Albany heavyweight vs. Vince Savio, Middletown, who fought a tough battle here with Newburgh's Carl Reinhardt.

Tommy Davis, 150, Kingston vs. Harry Rivers, Albany.

Harrison Rivers, Albany middleweight vs. Willem Verhoek or Dave Brandon, Kingston.

Tinker to Lose Foot

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 9 (AP)—Joe Tinker, 62-year-old former Chicago Cub shortstop, is scheduled to enter a hospital here early next week for the amputation of his left foot. Tinker, elected to baseball's Hall of Fame last summer and a member of the famous Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance double-play combination, has been bothered with a foot infection since last October.

Set for Saturday's Game

MARTY POWERS

JOE DINKWOOD

Marty "Red" Powers, high scoring forward and Joe Dinkwood, stellar backcourt ace of the Kingston Chiefs will be back Saturday night at the municipal auditorium when the Chiefs seek to ring up their second home victory in the American Professional Basketball League in a game with the fast Elizabeth Braves. Powers has been a pillar of strength in the two league games to date by scoring 12 against the Brooklyn Gothams and 16 against the Paterson Crescents. Dinkwood, former luminary at St. Francis College in Brooklyn, is one of Kingston's most popular players for his stellar defensive play. Tickets for Saturday's contest are now on sale and may be procured by calling the American Legion Building, 1914.

Tucker Holds Sullivan Award

Greatest Honor for 1946 Goes to Quarterback of Army Team

New York, Jan. 9 (AP)—Arnold Tucker, field general of Army's undefeated football team, today held amateur sport's greatest honor for 1946—the James F. Sullivan award.

Tucker, 22-year-old first classman from Miami, Fla., won the distinction by the closest vote ever recorded in the trophy's 17-year history.

He, with 597 points, nosed out Johnny Lujack, Notre Dame quarterback with 566 points, and Swimmer Bill Smith of Honolulu with 564, to bring the coveted Sullivan award to West Point for the second consecutive year.

The 1945 prize went to Felix (Doc) Blanchard, Army's line-cracking fullback.

It was due to a peculiar mixup between New York and California that Glenn Davis, Tucker's famous teammate, was not named for the vote. Candidates for the award originally were submitted by the AAU'S 41 district associations throughout the country. The Sullivan committee then cuts this list down to 10 for a final vote. Neither the metropolitan district under which West Point comes nor the California district in which Davis' home is located (he's from Claremont, Calif.) put his name into the hopper. California representatives did not submit Davis' name because they thought the metropolitan New York district intended to do so, and vice versa. When the omission finally was noted it was too late to do anything about it.

Tucker stated recently that despite attractive offers to play professional football he intended to accept his commission in June and remain in the Army. The trophy will be presented to him at a luncheon here on Feb. 23.

Mauriello Gets $10,000

Chicago, Jan. 9 (AP)—Tami Mauriello, who suffered a first round knockout by Champion Joe Louis last September but collected a sizeable purse, got paid at the rate of $158.72 a second in scoring a one-round knockout over James (Shamus) O'Brien, Philadelphia Negro last night. The New York heavyweight threw less than a half dozen punches before O'Brien was counted out—and the scheduled 10-round bout was over in 63 seconds. Mauriello's purse was $10,000, which was about one-third of the $30,627 gate contributed by a crowd of 6,716. Mauriello, who weighed 202 pounds, 25 more than O'Brien, left the ring amid a chorus of boos from the fans at the show staged in the International amphitheater.

Huffmire Leads DUSO Cage Scorers With 67 Markers

Ed Weaver, Big Maroon Center, Next With 53; Halpin Has Tallied 42 for Third

Don Huffmire, six foot, three inch center of Liberty High School's league-leading basketeers, has stolen the scoring leadership from Ed. Weaver, K.H.S. center, with a total of 67 points in three games to date.

Weaver, leader until Huffmire went wild Tuesday night, holds down the second place post with his total of 53. Ed has dumped in 22 fields and a like number of fouls.

Huffmire overtook Weaver Tuesday night when he swished the cords for 23 points in the postponed game with Middletown. The big pivot man has dropped in 29 fields and nine fouls.

Bert Halpin, Monticello, is third with 42. Jay Hodges of Newburgh and Mortie Kaplan, also of Monticello, round out the first five scorers with 39 and 38 respectively.

Huffmire is expected to add a few more points to his collection Friday night when Liberty plays host to Port Jervis. In the only other league activity, Middletown and Newburgh collide. Kingston High travels to Saugerties for a non-league tussle.

Hoppe Holds Lead

Chicago, Jan. 9 (AP)—Willie Hoppe of New York held a 20 point lead at the end of the first day of his 1,000-point, 20-block three-cushion billiard match with Jake Schaefer of Chicago. The two ended play yesterday with the veteran Hoppe garnering 100 points to Schaefer's 80. Hoppe defeated Schaefer 50 to 42 in the afternoon opening block and 50 to 38 in the evening block. Hoppe ran out the second block with an unfinished run of 11 in the 37th inning, the high run of the match.

BOWLING

Good Neighbor League

Mike Levy highlighted the Good Neighbor League matches Monday night at the Central Rec alleys with another tremendous night when he exploded a blistering 248 single and 645 triple for the Rudolph keglers who won all three games from the I.M.M. five.

Levy's hefty 645 triple is a new Good Neighbor League record for the season. The new title gives Mike possession of both high triple and high single marks. He had previously pounded out a 265 singleton earlier in the year.

Murray Greene followed Levy in the scoring column with a 243 single and 587 triple for Rudolphs. J. Kessler's 546 topped the I.M.M.

The B'nai B'rith trundlers, with Larry Jacobs leading with a 200 single and 562 three-timer, won two from the Kingston Stationery. H. Tirsch hit 181 and 485 for the losers.

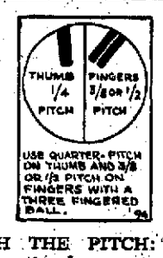
Ann Sabolowski, Jersey Tenpin Star to Bowl in City Sunday

Better Bowling

By BILLY SIXTY



WATCH THE PITCH: Andy Varipapa, the new American match champion, recommends the use of a three-fingered ball for two sound reasons. One, it insures a firmer grip and is easier to handle and control; two, it saves wear and tear on the hand.

He told me during the recent championship meet in Chicago that since he changed over from a two-fingered ball to a three, he has never been bothered with a sore thumb or fingers. And the title holder is one of the most active men in the game. He bowls thousands of games.

"The serious handicap that many bowlers run into is a split thumb," he said. "But that could be avoided if they get a ball that is properly drilled—if it has the correct angle of pitch. Too much pitch on the thumb is bad because it creates friction as the ball is released, and constant friction or pressure causes blisters."

"The thumb should come out of the hole FIRST, and it should come out easily. That is why I use only a quarter-inch pitch on my ball. I have a full (half pitch) on the finger-holes. (See illustration) which gives me a firm hold throughout the swing, without any feeling of pinching or squeezing the ball to hang on to it. To get spin on the ball, the fingers must come out of the holes LAST."

It is good advice to remember in getting a three-fingered ball fitted: A quarter-inch bore on the thumb, and either a three-eighths or one-half pitch on the fingers.

Davis Cup Reaches U. S.

Los Angeles, Jan. 9 (AP)—A gala homecoming celebration was on tap today for the famed Davis Cup and the men primarily responsible for returning it to America—Jack Kramer and Ted Schroeder. Kramer and Schroeder, the Los Angeles buddies who led the United States tennis team to their conquest of the Australians, were down as honor guests at a combined reception-parade-luncheon. The cup, heavily crated and insured, arrived by plane yesterday, together with Kramer, Schroeder, non-playing Captain Walter Pate, Frank Parker and the latter's wife.

Skeeter Pin Thumper to Roll With Famed New Yorkers for March of Dimes Fund

Ann Sabolowski, the New Jersey state doubles champion, and a member of the famed American Label Team of Newark last year, will be one of the featured stars in the March of Dimes parade of bowling stars Sunday afternoon at the Central Recs.

Miss Sabolowski, current high average leader in the Metropolitan Women's Classic with 180, has rolled high single games of 279 and 276 in the last three weeks.

In the 279 game, Miss Sabolowski, a fireball artist, opened with the 7-10 split and then poured in 11 strikes in a row. She throws a heavy ball off the corner and roars up to the foul line in a style reminiscent of Kingston's Gracie Sabo.

Tops Tillie Taylor

Sabolowski is averaging 180 with the crack Hillenbach squad, leaders in the Women's Major. She has a four point edge over the famous Tillie Taylor.

In addition to Mickey Michaels, who rolls the 10-game challenge match Saturday night against Rose Schatzel, the all-star ladies squad will feature Irene Richards, a perennial Eastern star, Ann McLennan and a fifth member to be announced later.

In the men's attraction, the crack American Bowling and Billiards team of New York city, Metropolitan Major League leaders, meet a local squad.

Tickets Going Fast

Mort Lindsey and Marty Cassio, two of the greatest names in bowling history spearhead the A.B.C. roster. Lindsey is one of the few men ever to win two A.B.C. titles, while Cassio is the 10-year leader in A.B.C. tournament averages. Other members of the squad are Dom Suraci, Rickey Knapp and Frank Sexton.

"Hod" Spaulding, chairman of the Kingston Bowling Association's March of Dimes committee, says that tickets are selling briskly for the Sunday doubleheader. He predicts the largest attendance in local bowling history.

Hialeah Is Ready

Miami, Fla., Jan. 9 (AP)—Primped, preened and polished, the Hialeah race course declared itself ready today for the 20th annual winter running of the thoroughbreds beginning January 17. Countless miles of hibiscus hedges have been trimmed, acres of lawn meticulously cut, strutting pink flamingos on the infield lake were sleek and squawking happily, and all the coconuts had been removed from the towering palm trees so none of the customers would get konked from above.

Mulloy Is in Finals

Adelaide, Australia, Jan. 9 (AP)—Gardner Mulloy of the United States won his way into the finals of the South Australia Tennis Championships by defeating Colin Long, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2, in a semi-final match today. On Saturday he will meet the winer of the Bill Talbert-Dinny Pails match for the title. Tom Brown of San Francisco meantime reached the finals of the Seaside Tournament at Manly by beating Richard Felan, 6-4, 6-2, in the semi-finals.

Standard time was adopted in the United States November 18, 1883.

Prepare for Parley Of Feed Dealers From This Area

Albert Kurdt, Ulster county agricultural agent, and William J. Clark of New City, regional chairman of the southeastern New York agents, are making arrangements for the conference of all feed dealers in this area to be held in Newburgh on Wednesday, January 15, from 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

New and practical developments in feeding cows and hens will be featured at the one-day meeting, sponsored by the Extension Service at both the state and county levels.

County Agent Kurdt said this is a new program designed to acquaint feed dealers, who are in a position to influence good farm practices, with practical facts that they can pass on to their farm customers.

Cornell staff members on the program will be D. Leo Hayes, representing the state office of county agricultural agents; Prof. E. I. Robertson of the poultry department, and Prof. C. L. Norton of the animal husbandry staff. Reservations are being made for a joint luncheon at noon.

Mother Won't Have Him

Yonkers, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—A 21-year-old G.I. student charged with abduction when he tried to elope to Greenwich, Conn., with a 17-year-old Yonkers college freshman was free today—so long as he stays away from his would-be bride. A Yonkers magistrate released the youth, John Dillon, after adjourning the case for four months and exacting a promise from Dillon that he would not see or communicate with Constance Drury during that time. Constance's mother brought the abduction charge after her daughter disappeared, and police found the couple living separately in Greenwich, waiting out the five days before they could obtain a marriage license. The mother agreed yesterday to the postponement.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Economics Lesson

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 9 (AP)—Associate Professor John R. Huber, who teaches economics at the University of Washington, pleaded in defense of a speeding charge that he was hurrying home to relieve the baby sitter with his children.

"That's a poor economics," said Justice of the Peace Roy Degrief.

"It's penny wise and pound foolish to pay out $10 for a fine to save 50 cents for a baby sitter."

The professor agreed and paid.

Ugh to Ah

Albuquerque, N. M., Jan. 9 (AP)—Giles L. Mathews, income tax field deputy, says an Indian sought help in filling out his income tax blank.

To questions on earnings, profits, cash on hand, the Indian had only one answer: "Ugh." Then the conversation went like this:

"You'll have to tell me."

"Ugh."

"Why, you may even have a refund coming."

"Ah, how much?"

Cat Nabs Rabbit

Chicago, Jan. 9 (AP)—Walter Rogers and his wife, Hazel, were awakened yesterday morning by a disturbance in their home in suburban Skokie—and found their cat "Ditto" had kidnaped a rabbit.

The Rogerses were puzzled by the manner in which "Ditto" managed to carry the rabbit up a 10-foot long, four-inch ramp to a bedroom window and through a six-inch trap door.

There was quite a commotion when "Ditto" and the rabbit landed in the bedroom. The rabbit sought refuge in the bathtub and the Rogerses held "Ditto" prisoner in the kitchen, then the rabbit was turned loose outside the home.

Hooting Success

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 9 (AP)—The 16 stuffed owls mounted atop 187-foot high gas storage tanks are the most successful weapon in ridding Decatur of starlings.

An Association of Commerce committee reported that the stuffed owls stationed at strategic points frightened away uncounted thousands of the owl-fearing birds.

The committee estimated more than 20,000 starlings have been exterminated in the city's two months campaign to get rid of the birds.

Mack Is Reappointed

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 9 (AP)—Governor Dewey today reappointed John E. Mack to a five-year term as trustee of the Supreme Court Library at Poughkeepsie.

World Gets Notice From G.O.P. That Policy Is Same

Foreign Program Will Be Same in Peace as in War; Demand Is for Address

Washington, Jan. 9 (AP)—The dominantly Republican Congress put the world on notice today that American foreign policy has the same united backing in peace as it had in war.

The chorus of Senate unanimity with which Gen. George C. Marshall won his sensationally swift confirmation as successor to Secretary of State James F. Byrnes demonstrated not only congressional confidence in his ability, but also solidified bi-partisan agreement on the necessity for an unbroken foreign policy.

The support for Marshall, bridging party differences, apparently rested on twin bases: (1) His record during and since the war, and (2) the conviction that he not only will pursue the "patient but firm" policies of Byrnes but will carry on his predecessor's practice of working closely with Congress.

This was reflected in a growing legislative demand for Marshall to address a joint congressional session before he leaves for the March 10 meeting of the Foreign Ministers' Council in Moscow and the task of seeking Big Four agreements on Germany and Austria.

It raised, too, the likelihood that Marshall will seek to have Senators Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, and Connally, its ranking Democratic member, at his side for that meeting.

Marshall May Prevail

Both Vandenberg and Connally have indicated strong reluctance to abandon their legislative chores for future international conferences, but Marshall may prevail upon them to change their minds on the grounds that he will need their background.

It will be the problem of assimilating that background which may prove the most pressing for Marshall in the brief period between now and his scheduled huddle with the diplomatic chiefs of Britain, France and Russia.

But others, also of grave international import, await his attention. Among them:

1. Methods for speeding Germany's economic recovery to make it self-supporting, and thus less of a burden on American taxpayers.

2. A review of this government's policy toward Argentina.

3. Action on strife-torn China's request of a $500,000,000 credit from the Export-Import Bank in the face of congressional demands for iron-clad assurances that any loan will be used for rehabilitation —not for civil war.

4. Pursuit of this country's stand before the United Nations on such long-range issues as disarmament, control of atomic energy and removal of international trade barriers.

Prediction Is Made

From Senator Brewster (R.-Me.), new chairman of the Senate war investigating committee, came a prediction that Marshall shortly will order civilian control of American administration in Germany—a move consistently opposed by Byrnes.

Brewster's prediction to a reporter was based on the belief that Marshall, wartime army chief of staff, would string along with such a recommendation by Gen. Lucius Clay, now the commander of American forces in Europe.

Just what stand Marshall will take on the other issues remained open to speculation, although he has indicated that one condition for a loan to China will be an accord between the warring Chinese Communists and Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist government. Marshall is due back in Washington late next week from his fruitless mission to China to try to bring about that accord.

Food Brokers Say Prices Will Drop

price, however, is that it is today's best guess of the butter and egg men on what the wholesale price will be this summer.

In nearly all markets in which food is traded for future delivery, a similar trend is shown. Eggs are a single exception. In most cases, the more distant the delivery, the lower the price.

Take wheat, which is basic for flour, bread, macaroni and other foods. It's cash price at Chicago is around $2.20 a bushel. If you buy for March delivery, it's $2.04. For July it's $1.78, or 40 cents under present cash prices. Other grains follow that pattern.

Santos coffee will cost 26 cents a pound for delivery in January but only 23 cents for next December. Cocoa is 25 cents for March and 23 cents for September.

This trend holds true for commodities other than foods. Cash cotton is about 33 cents a pound. So is the March delivery. But cotton for delivery in March, 1948, is under 27 cents.

In every case this represents, in dollars and cents, what the individuals and business firms who operate in these markets now think of future price trends.

Port Authority To Build Terminal

fering with the veterans' housing program."

Terming the project "essential to community welfare," Parker said that by eliminating delay and double handling of freight, the terminal was expected to remove 1,830,000 miles of truck travel from Manhattan streets and save the community an estimated $10,000,000 annually.

Howard S. Cullman, chairman of the port authority, said construction bids would be called for immediately and that work would begin 30 days after all bids had been received.

The terminal is expected to be a receiving point for freight borne by helicopters. With this point in mind the Board of Trade has arranged for a helicopter freight delivery tomorrow from LaGuardia field to the site of the terminal.

The plane will pick up parcels coming into LaGuardia from Europe and leave them on the terminal site, where local trucks will complete the delivery.

Progress Is Reported

New York, Jan 9 (AP)—Progress in the union's presentation of its case was reported last night by the impartial chairman of a three-man arbitration board hearing unsettled issues between the Consolidated Edison Company of New York and Locals 1, 2, 3, 4 and 7, C.I.O. Utility Workers Unions of America. In adjourning proceedings, Impartial Chairman Dr. George W. Taylor, professor of industry at the University of Pennsylvania, said the hearing would resume next Wednesday morning.

intersection of Washington avenue and Pearl street had been ordered and would be available the latter part of February. The sign directs traffic to routes U. S. 209 and N. Y. S. 28 and 32.

The committee went on record as favoring a study of the licensing and inspection of taxi cabs and the examination of taxicab operators. It further suggested that steps be taken to provide for safer operation of these vehicles. The secretary was instructed to send a letter to the proper committee of the Common Council to inform them of the sentiments of the committee and the request for such a study.

Frank Oulton, chairman of the Common Council traffic committee, reported that the pipe for parking meter standards would be shipped this month, but that the Board of Public Works has advised that installation would not begin until the frost is out of the ground.

Bert Bishop, chairman of the Street Traffic Committee, presided at yesterday's meeting. Others present were Chief of Police Ernest Boss; Superintendent of the Board of Public Works, Ernest Steuding; Walter Falck, Arthur Hallinan, Louis Kantrowitz, Louis Steketee, Wilson Boyce, Arthur Laidlaw, Frank Oulton and Don Williams.

velt did not tell him she had been asleep at the wheel. He said he was nervous and upset the following day when he signed a police accident report which quoted Mrs. Roosevelt as saying she had dozed off.

The accident occurred shortly after 4:30 p. m. last Aug. 14 on the Saw Mill River Parkway in Yonkers when Mrs. Roosevelt's car, southbound, crossed into the northbound lane of traffic.

Although originally five people were reported injured, testimony at yesterday's hearing indicated only Brooks suffered serious injury: A fractured wrist, several broken ribs and a wrenched back.

Glasheen, at conclusion of the hearing, said he would determine whether to summon Mrs. Roosevelt before him in person for an examination.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights
"Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
